PUBLIC ALERT: BEWARE OF RECRUITMENT SCAMS

The attention of the Ghana Armed Forces has been drawn to ongoing fraudulent activities by individuals impersonating senior military commanders in an attempt to deceive and extort money from unsuspecting members of the public under the pretence of offering recruitment support.

The Ghana Armed Forces wishes to categorically state that there are no recruitment exercises ongoing for soldiers. However, enlistment for potential officer cadets which began last year is at its final stages. Any individual or group claiming to facilitate recruitment into the Armed Forces in exchange for money is engaging in criminal activity.

Members of the public who have been approached by such scammers are advised to report to the nearest police station for appropriate action. The Ghana Armed Forces is working closely with law enforcement agencies to identify and prosecute these imposters.

When recruitment processes begin, announcements will be communicated through official platforms of the Ghana Armed Forces in addition to the Daily Graphic and the Ghanaian Times. The public is strongly encouraged to rely solely on these trusted sources for accurate information.

The Armed Forces urges all citizens to remain vigilant and cooperate in the efforts against fraud and criminality. The support of the general public in this endeavour is highly appreciated.

VA ARHIN

Captain (Ghana Navy)

Acting Director General Public Relations
